Mrs. Catherine L. Szpindor
Chief Administrative Officer
HB-28, Capitol Building
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Mrs. Szpindor,

While the federal government continues to experience a shutdown, I request that you withhold my pay as a Member of Congress.

I represent thousands of federal employees, government contractors, and their families in Massachusetts who will be furloughed or deemed essential and required to work without pay. Washington's dysfunction is unacceptable. Until both parties come to the table, do their job, and reopen the government, Members of Congress should not receive pay.

Please withhold my net pay until an appropriations agreement has taken effect and the shutdown has ended.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in blue ink, reading "Seth Moulton", with a horizontal line extending to the right.

Seth Moulton
Member of Congress, MA-06
